Re: Davangere Disturbances cases:--

I have the honour to state that the trial in the above-mentioned cases was commenced in the latter part of August 1929 and is proceeding and that I have not yet submitted my bill of fee for work hitherto done.

Before, however, submitting my bill I wish to bring to your kind notice certain facts which, in the special circumstances of the case, will have to be taken into consideration in fixing a suitable scale of fee for the cases. Though the rule is that ordinarily a fee of Rs 16/- is allowed for a day's attendance in a criminal court a higher fee is generally sanctioned in view of the exceptional importance and difficulty of the case. That the ases are of more than ordinary interest and are very important om every point of view does not admit of any doubt. The accus e being strongly defended by Counsel and are leaving no stone turned to escape the clutches of law. Intricate questions of w and fact are involved in these cases, a very large number of rsons are being proceeded against and a much larger number are be examined as witnesses. All this is involving the taking extra pains in the conduct of prosecution in these cases. sides, in order to attend to them, I have got to absent myself om my Head-Quarter, not for a few days only, but three days ery week, continuously for a number of months with serious de- iment to my civil practice and other work. Having regard to ese and other considerations a fee of rupees fifty per day and lf of that amount if the case is merely adjourned is, it is mitted, reasonable. I therefore request you to kindly re- mend to Government for the sanction of the above-mentioned ale.
